SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION ON DEPLOYMENT ADVISORY AND FORCE PROTECTION ADVISORY

FORT BRAGG, N.C.- The two advisories sent out earlier today reference the XVIII Airborne Corps receiving deployment orders and Fort Bragg adjusting its procedures for access onto the installation are two separate issues and are not related.

The change in the force protection procedures is due in part to recent announcements by the Department of Homeland Security concerning increased threats in the coming months. The deployment of the Corps Headquarters and some of its subordinate elements is part of a normal rotation of forces to support military operations in Iraq.
